ACTUALLY, THE L.E.A.A. DIDN'T RETIRE -- IT METASTASIZED
Before it disbanded in April 1982, the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration had 15 years in which to complete the tasks assigned to it. It prepared the way for "Federal Emergency Management Administration."

LEAA Organization Chart

Office of the Administration

Executive Secretary

Office of Planning and Management

Accounting
- Grants and Contracts
- Budget
- Information Systems

Office of the Controller

Operations Support

Personnel
- Training
- Administrative Services
- Video Visual Communications

Office of General Counsel

Office of Congressional Liaison

Office of Public Information

Office of Civil Rights Compliance

Office of Equal Employment Opportunity

National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice

- Research Program
- Technology Transfer
- Evaluation

Office of National Priority Programs

- Program Development
- Evaluation
- Initiatives
- Program Operations

National Criminal Justice Information & Statistics Service

- Statistics
- Systems Development

Office of Regional Operations

- Policy and Program Review
- Planning Analysis and Coordination
- Program Development

Office of Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention

- Juvenile Justice
- Delinquency Prevention

Office of Criminal Justice Education & Training

- Education
- Training

Washington DC
Atlanta
Denver
Sacramento

Boston
New York
Philadelphia
Atlanta
Chicago
Dallas
Kansas City
Denver
San Francisco
Seattle

1974