

Begin Here.....

This envelope contains the Introduction. Open it up first! You, no doubt, already know that the “new world order” globalists are working to collapse our proper form of Constitutional government very soon, and move the United States under the fully operating militarized-communized world government! In this shipment, you are receiving one of the most valuable evidences (a document wrapped up in tissue paper with a green cover on the outside), which proves that the internationalists who are destroying our economy, our borders, our financial system, and our Bill of Rights have deliberately planned to do so. It is the KEY DOCUMENT in this mailing. Some one has to answer for this! Please use all your resources to expose this evil effort headed by all of our presidents since F.D.R. There is enough evidence in the other envelopes to prove that the problem is in the oval office. Open the other envelopes (covering each president beginning with F.D.R.) after you finish with this Introduction. If this effort gets enough attention, it gives a promise to blow open the whole conspiracy and save our nation from on-coming planned disaster. If we do nothing, we are surely headed for ruin! Please help expose this. - Second Amendment Committee

READ THIS FIRST

Naturally, you are wondering what all this is leading to!

We are in a state of emergency!

Our proper government will soon be totally wiped out if we do nothing - or - if we are not willing to use the evidences available to us to show that the condition of the country is a result of deliberate evil planning! "The Politics of Change in Local Government Reform" (the enclosed government document with a green sheet in front) is the most powerful evidence anyone can have. It is proof that the catastrophes and crises that we have been experiencing have been deliberately engineered upon the American people. It will not stop until martial law takes over.

We have done our very best to put together this mailing, which is being sent to quite a number of people who have big followings throughout this country. We will come right to the point – our problem is centered in the Oval Office! It is time that the people realize that we have been sold out by our own presidents! Patrick Henry would call it "ambuscade"! It will be no different with either of the two major party presidential contenders (McCain or Obama). Both are handpicked and planted to serve the internationalists in a controlled election! The sedition will continue. We must demand a thorough examination of the Oval Office.

We should never stop making a strong public demand for an investigation of the presidential brotherhood and the direction it has been taking us. There will be no changes to this Titanic ride we are on, unless an investigation formally opens. The investigation has to be ultimately controlled by the people. If the Supreme Court is pulled in, it can only be a subsidiary. The People's Court has to be doing its own thing. They should come out to the same decisions, if the court is not compromised. Tax-exempt foundations are the financial power behind the treasonous acts of the presidents, who in turn, abuse executive orders, and other actions, to un-do our rights and safeguards. It is time to remove the wool that was pulled over the eyes of the people. It has to be stopped!

What is assembled here contains all the proof you need to show that every president since F.D.R. has participated in building an international government on the side, without the knowledge of the people, cloaking their seditious acts in false language, pretending to be following Constitutional rules and principles! Every president has maintained what his predecessors had advanced, plus introduce his own additional unlawful segments for which he was programmed, tasked and scheduled to achieve. They have all the parts assembled, and at any time, can put their 'new world order' into action. Martial law will be its forerunner.

Much of the information you are now receiving has been photocopied from the original authentic documents. We have also included some work by great patriotic writers. This presentation is going out to only special people who have wide contacts, mostly talk show hosts, in the hope that some unification of the resistance will occur by those of us who are against the overthrow of our constitutional government.

The information needed to be explained is: WHAT IS BEHIND CHANGE! McCain, Obama, Biden, Palin, and Hillary Clinton are all pushing the doctrine of "change". What has been happening IS usurpation of power, sedition, and malfeasance of office, etc, centered in the president's office. If you are a patriotic talk show host receiving this information, please give it first and continual attention on your show. Wouldn't it be remarkable if a governor would come forth and do what Gov. Ralph Carr of Colorado did? Is there any governor willing to speak out, and put a stop to the federal masquerade?

Here are some quick points needed to be made at this time:

1. Be sure to use the 16th Jurisprudence. It is essential!
2. Wars destroy the victors as well as the vanquished. The administration has fought too many unnecessary wars and spent too many billions of the people's money foolishly in foreign countries, trying to buy them under the rule of world government, which has made foreign countries hate us, while our own economic, and banking system is ruined. We will have no friends when our administration decides to attack patriotic people. We must pull ourselves up by our own bootstraps.
3. Do not use this effort to advance your own pet project! Stay with the demand for an investigation of the Oval Office and the damage of the presidential brotherhood via executive orders. Start a little group of your own, an Ad Hoc Committee and spread the word. Encourage others to do the same.
4. Misprision of Treason is a crime that is committed by people who witness a crime and do nothing to report it. It is a crime for our presidents and their assistants to be overthrowing our Constitution. Look it up! Such laws are provided for your review here in this mailing. These crimes have to be addressed!
5. So that you will not miss one of the very important documents in the Solutions envelope, I urge you to look at the blue covered report entitled the "Joint Committee on Regional Government" in Illinois, written by good state legislators a few years back, trying to put a stop to the unlawful acts of the administration. They tell it like it is. Unfortunately, their unworthy state governor would not allow the Report to be sent to the federal government, even though it was passed by both houses of the Illinois State Legislature. It is still an important state government document.
6. You have essentially everything you will need in this mailing to blow the whistle on those who are destroying our heritage and our proper system of government, even though there is much more to add to this. It is time that the presidential brotherhood be exposed and their cavalcade of treasonous activity be seen, understood, and exposed. Please notice the interlock that runs through from one president to another as they all worked on the same destructive effort, using executive orders, treaties, to change us. There is no authority for what they do, except downright deception. There has never been any "consent of the governed" for us to be changed from limited into unlimited government.
7. The International government being pushed in the United States, requires global government to be unlimited. Unlimited government requires people to be serfs, without any right to limit the power that can be exercised over them. This is the core of the problem, and if we do nothing, we will surely lose! If we are to be saved, we will have to do it ourselves.
8. Please do not lose time after you have gone over this material. We need to restore the Un-American Activities Committee, which will investigate the tax-exempt foundations financing our downfall. Another one of the "firsts" is to take back our schools, our state police from the federal government, and shut down the Homeland Security Agency before every part of our Constitutional structure and states become destroyed. That Agency wants to move people under its control with a national ID card!
10. Much of the improper conduct by public officials has been caused by an intentional and wrongful interpretation of the 14th Amendment. Also the 16th Amendment. Federal income tax being levied by the federal government is forbidden by the Constitution. We are in this situation because the federal government has been allowed to have too much money and too much power!

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT CHANGE

Dear friend:

This mailing is being sent to you because you are a devoted patriot. We urge you to support this effort. It is not by accident that the dreadful situation threatening to collapse the Constitution of the United States has come before us. The catastrophes and crises we now face have been deliberately created, engineered by devious political planners, and conducted by elected public officials who are pretenders, political actors, and conniving internationalists.

You are receiving herewith bona fide evidence of how we as a nation have been quietly placed in harm's way. Three major things are contained in this mailing:

(1) The simplified history of the presidential brotherhood, and the methods they used to bring our country to its present possible but undesired demise. The envelopes on each president are numbered. Franklin D. Roosevelt is #1; Harry Truman is #2; Dwight Eisenhower is #3; John F. Kennedy is #4; Lyndon Johnson is #5; Richard Nixon is #6; Gerald Ford is #7; James Carter is #8; Ronald Reagan is #9; George H. W. Bush is #10; William J. Clinton is #11; George W. Bush is #12.

(2) The key document: "The Politics of Change in Local Government Reform" with a green cover sheet attached to the front is the proof needed to show the "who, where, when and how" the engineered catastrophic planning was done.

(3) Suggested solutions that are peaceful, which is the only sensible and just way to proceed. The intent behind this effort is to make this information known, in order to prevent the United States Constitution from being abolished, and to avoid martial law, which if it happens, may be permanent.

This presentation is valuable because supporters of our proper Constitutional government must become unified. Whichever candidate gets elected (John McCain or Barak Obama) the dreadful transition of this nation from a republic into a segment of the militarized international socialist/communist government will continue in high speed.

Over many administrations the presidents have built a parallel government and have put it on standby, waiting for the most far-reaching planned disaster to occur to force a change into the standby parallel government; one that operates under unlimited military powers. The people are also being asked to approve “change” without realizing what it really means.

The patriotic community needs to quickly unite, and push for a national awakening. Possibly, George W. Bush will try to enact the “takeover” before his term ends, and declare that martial law is in force over the nation, which is another reason that you are urged to be peaceable in your actions, and not to give him reason to do that.

Besides, such an action over the whole country would be unconstitutional and a dictatorship of his own making. He has no authority to take such an action. A citizen-controlled (non-governmental) investigation must be opened to provide this evidence. In regard to the coming election, be aware that both candidates representing the two major parties, Republican and Democrat, are in league with the objectives of the presidential brotherhood being exposed here. This is why McCain and Obama were chosen to represent their respective parties. Expect no help from there!

The Politics of CHANGE in Local Government Reform (see Pages 132 – 133) is of great value to you to show that the banking crisis has its roots in devious planning. You will need to have available the best bona fide evidence to stop the disaster that is planned to occur. With this mailing, you have that quality of evidence to show to fellow patriots.

Please help with this essential and necessary work to retain our Constitutional system of government. We must retain the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights, which was designed to put limits on the power that man can exercise over his fellow man. If Patrick Henry and George Washington could be here with us today, they would tell us that we should have seen this coming much sooner, and that it always was the president’s position that caused them the most worry.

Although I have included some suggestions and solutions, you may find some better worded ones to be the banner for the restoration of the Constitution. Please spread the word and share this information on a broad basis in an orderly fashion so as not to energize the vengeance of those who have set out to destroy our heritage.

Instead of running around like frantic blind mice trying to decide where to put your money to save it, use your energy to coordinate a national investigation by non-governmental people to expose what has placed you in danger of losing your valuable constitutional government as well! It needs your help to restore it with its proper principles. This time to enforce the Oath of Office and the meaning behind it. Use the directive in the 16th Jurisprudence (enclosed) to wipe out all the executive orders, laws and treaties passed by presidents and/or Congress, which are misconstructions or fantasies of global dreamers.

If you are concerned enough, and realize that the Constitutional government of limited powers should be retained, please give it all the energy you can muster and make it your highest priority.

United we stand – divided we fall. God Bless the Constitution and our efforts to save it.

Second Amendment Committee Post Office Box 1776 Hanford, California 93232

PRECONDITIONING FOR ACCEPTANCE OF CHANGE

(revised – 1983)

by

K M Heaton

This paper makes no effort to persuade that there presently exists a scientific subversion of the mental processes which normally govern both individual and collective action. It is assumed that those for whom it is written are already informed about existing capabilities for control of events through conditioned decision-making.

It is hoped, rather, to develop wider understanding of the techniques by which conditioning takes place, and the conduits through which it operates, to the end that more effective counterattacks can be mounted in this war for the minds of men. There will be no attempt here to incorporate those agents, strategies, and tactics which are already identified.

There are some premises underlying the uses of mind-manipulation, which are of importance in any attempt to counteract its effects. These premises include that:

- a) a GOAL has been set, which is not compatible with the will of the citizenry;
- b) to obtain that Goal, a majority must be MOVED to accept it;
- c) MEANS had to be devised to bypass resistance.

That Goal was stated in the First Occasional Paper of the Rockefeller General Education Board. Essentially, it was to be a return to serfdom, for all the people of the world, except for an elite few, who would work their will in managing the affairs of the whole world.

To achieve “a docile people”, yielding gratefully to the “moulding hands” of that elite, required a number of intermediate objectives:

- 1) eradication of historic religious concepts;
- 2) a world organization to bring influence to bear universally;
- 3) elimination of “artificial” political boundaries;
- 4) selected – not elected – officials;
- 5) amalgamation of races, in a greatly reduced population;
- 6) control of transportation, communication, education, money, and agriculture; and
- 7) a management system, to control such a massive undertaking.

All of the problems created by the necessary moves in pursuit of this Goal, fit one or another of these premises, and “CHANGE!” has been the battle cry.

Pavlov’s contribution to this scheme is well known.

Not so evident, but of great, continuing importance, is the technique developed by John Dewey, to put Pavlov’s theories into action systematically by creating an ‘innovation’ (a ‘desired’ change), publicizing its ‘effectiveness’ for a stated purpose (not necessarily the real one), building support for it, ‘conditioning’ acceptance for it, and, eventually adoption of it.

H.G. Wells contributed the method of supplying the ‘troops’ to conduct this offensive, in his book, “The Open Conspiracy”.

How well this trio succeeded, is the subject of a recent book titled “The Aquarian Conspiracy”, though the author’s thesis is that it all ‘just happened’. Not only modern literature, and ponderous tomes from ‘social scientists’, but the record itself, speaks clearly of a presumptive need to SUBORN ACCEPTANCE of this Goal, which could never be realized through open debate on its merits.

There’s been a deliberate effort to conceal the true nature of that Goal, and to embed in the public mind the thought that it is not only desirable, but also inevitable. In fact, it is neither. The shocking truth about the use of ‘brainwashing’ on American prisoners-of-war in Korea could have ended the whole scheme thirty years ago, had it been possible to relate what was occurring in this country, even then, to those evidences of scientific subversion of the mental processes.

MAKING THAT CONNECTION NOW CAN STILL DETERMINE THE OUTCOME OF THE WAR WE ARE IN TODAY.

There’s no longer room for doubt that a war, more deadly than any fought with bullets or bombs, is the moving force behind the assaults on established institutions, and social and political principles.

PSYCHOPOLITICS is the viable force by which this war is being conducted. The ‘mind sciences’ provide both the enabling agents and the munitions to conduct the offensive. Colleges, universities, think tanks and bureaucracies provide both the training grounds for the insurgents, and the supply sources to support the assault. With logistical maintenance from both the foundations and government now, there’s no want for material to conduct this war.

Psychopolitics is “the art and science of obtaining and maintaining control” over individuals and masses. It holds that a degraded nation has no defense against conquest; that a nation is only as principled as its people. A continuing strategy in this war has been to degrade the citizenry. Uninhibited sex is the ultimate weapon in degradation, and promotion of every conceivable debauchery, including raw sex in the schoolrooms, has been an accelerating tactic, insidiously eroding morals, ethics and principles. By means of such assaults, both personal and institutional integrity are debauched. The result is paralysis of the will to resist – recognized today as “apathy”.

BRAINWASHING is one prong of a dual tactic, and is an element of psychopolitics. This is the term that describes the process by which INDOCTRINATION is accomplished. The other prong is MIND CHANGING, which applies to the process of converting one set of values to another. Brainwashing replaces conceived beliefs with externally-determined alternatives; mind changing transfers loyalty from the former belief to the latter.

There are a number of elements essential to deliberately altering individual perceptions. Among these are drugs, fatigue, tension, threat, violence, and hunger. To the extent that all are present, the success of psychopolitical attack can be assured. When a sexual dominant is included, through the use of subliminal and/or hypnotic suggestion, such as has been demonstrated to exist in TV, radio, and the media, generally, the potential for control on a mass scale is not debatable.

At first glance, it might seem that the 'necessary' elements are not, in fact, present, in this advanced country. Take hunger. How can one speak of hunger in the best-fed population on earth? Consider. Fifty years ago, grocers' shelves groaned with the weight of good, wholesome foods, naturally grown. Butcher shops sold nourishing, unadulterated meats. Compare those facts with what is available today! The result has been recognition of new disease – hyperactivity – the 'twinky' defense.

Each of the other elements can as easily be related to the lives of all Americans.

Although brainwashing and mind changing are major concerns, they are but part of the change strategy. A serious aspect in all of them is that the victim resists recognizing that he has been manipulated.

Elected officials are prime targets of psychopolitical operatives, for obvious reasons. Logical deduction suggests that the almost total lack of concern displayed by legislators, when citizens attempted to warn them of perceived dangers inherent in the so-called Planning, Programming and Budgeting System (PPBS), had to stem from more than the usual diffidence met when protesting previous non-representative programs. Even those legislators, who had been receptive in the past, were unreachable in the matter of the PPBS.

Understanding how this resistance is developed is basic to any effort to dismantle the System – which must be done, if there is to be a return to Constitutional government.

A new dimension was added to the various disciplines of mind and thought-control, with the development of the Theory of Cognitive Dissonance (TCD). TCD holds that the mind readily accepts information which agrees (is consonant) with previously held beliefs and past experience, while it tends to reject information that does not agree (is dissonant).

The concepts of the PPBS, as revealed to legislators by their constituents, were too estranged from those given them by the promoters of this scheme, to be assimilated. Those legislators had been conditioned, over a period of years, by experts, to accept this System as a 'space-age boon'; a budgeting aid; a new, exciting method of accounting. Not just once, but over and over, they had voted approval of it, as its many components were brought to them for study, for funding, for modifying, for extension. Their reputations were tied to it; their minds accepted it as a benefit; their acceptance of it had been continuously re-enforced by 'experts'.

When citizens asked for recognition by them of a different capability, TCD took over. After all, the citizens had no expertise in these matters!

Even such conditioning is not the whole story. For many years, “social scientists” had been experimenting with, and refining, techniques for manipulating other people’s minds, attitudes and behavior. In the early thirties, Moreno’s ‘sociometry’ had ushered in the new era of official tampering with natural processes of cerebration. An accelerating flood of courses were initiated in colleges and universities, designed to produce willing cooperators in systematic control of people, institutions, programs and policies.

Group dynamics, sensitivity training, behavioral modification, T-grouping, and the rest, have only one central purpose – to replace individual responsibility and action, with group accountability and conformity. It’s this transfer of initiative, from the private sector, to government, which under girds all the problems of today. It usurps the sovereignty of the citizen, despite Constitutional prohibition and historic precedence.

RAND Corporation has developed a whole library of strategies constructed around a World War-two tool for geopolitical warfare, which is called “Delphi”. Delphi, once a method for predetermining enemy action by deductive reasoning, is in wide use today as a psychopolitical method of controlling opinion. Exposure of its use, to direct the decisions of a prestigious Commission on Criminal Justice, provided a momentary setback in the inexorable penetration of our historic system of justice.

Variants of these control strategies have been, and are being, used on every front in this war.

A case in point: In the early seventies, a textbook was developed by a think tank at Berkeley, with the authority of the Governor’s Office, and coordinated by the Council on Intergovernmental Relations, which provided an elementary course in the use of psychopolitics “to provide the operant mechanism to change events in local government” (a direct quote). Named as the essential elements for planned change were:

1. A Collapse of government’s ability to provide needed services.
2. A Crisis of major magnitude.
3. A Catastrophe that has a physical effect on the community.
4. The Corruption of local officials.
5. The high Cost of government and the desire for a higher level of services.

“The Politics of Change” (TPOC) then proceeded to suggest ways to create these elements. TPOC offers prima facie evidence of a deliberate, calculated, scheme to disinform, mislead, manage, and control the destiny of local government in California and its citizens, without regard for legal, moral or ethical constraints.

If those elements are, as stated, the basis for planned change, and it can be established that they exist on a national scale, doesn't logic suggest it would be folly to assume it is not being used on the federal level as well?

A network of mutually supportive organizations has been identified as a conduit for creating the physical appurtenances of "the new world order". The network is known as "1313". The Council mentioned above was a 1313 affiliate. Little note has been taken of the capability of this network in the area of directing the decision-making of those who participate in their activities, nor, by extension, those in the realm of influence of 1313. Exposure of the nature of the CIR-sponsored TPOC brought no rebuke, nor repudiation. Instead, CIR was quietly assimilated into another Executive agency, where it could no longer be monitored by the citizenry.

Closely associated with this network is another, with complementary purposes. This is the apparatus which operates through the colleges and universities, under the fictitious name of "social science". In this one, adepts are trained in all the disciplines of the politics of change.

The halls of academe are breeding grounds for "change agents", as young Americans are inducted into the art and science of people-control. In these centers, poll taking is a core activity. Surveys are the lifeblood of "the politics of change". Here, staff is trained for the mind sciences; methods and procedures are developed and taught; human behavior is dissected and recreated; the processes of planned change are designed and applied, and strategies are perfected to alter the machinery of government.

In recent times, these courses have attracted the elected representatives of the people, to train them in change strategies. One such course is titled "How to Get Your Most Difficult and Controversial Programs Implemented, through a Systematic Process of Developing the Necessary Public Acceptance"! Its creators brag about the number of State and local officials who've attended. The intended victims pay for these courses.

The use of systematic strategies to control elections is widespread. Accounts of the campaign activities which placed James Earl Carter in the White House are persuasive that systematic management was his ticket to the office. "Reapportionment" has been replaced by "redistricting", in which pockets of support for, and opposition to, a given candidate, are identified systematically, and district boundaries manipulated to assure election of a 'desired' candidate, or defeat of an unwanted incumbent. Activities such as these make a mockery of the elective process.

Underlying all of these activities is a recognition that the general public would resist the planned change, and an intent to bypass that resistance. There's no evidence that pangs of conscience accompany these bold determinations to encroach on the right of the citizens to make their own decisions in matters so vital to their lives.

Variants of change strategies have been identified in a number of critical areas. On the federal level, the Department of Defense went through a massive penetration in the mid-sixties. In California, in the early seventies, a Specialized Training Institute (CSTI) was created to indoctrinate 'peace officers' in the techniques of controlling and/or suppressing, ‘political dissent’, specifically including the use of force against a citizenry, which might resist a tyrannical takeover of their legitimate government.

Billions of dollars of public monies have been, and are being, spent to transfer the capabilities of systematic management from an external operation in these networks, to an internal, integrated total control system – an inseparable element of government. It is already revolutionizing the structure of government. Once internalized, it will institutionalize the changes made to accommodate it.

This System does not tolerate representation. It requires administration from the top down. The head of RAND (who designed the PPB System) made that very clear, when he stated, “The entire operation must be the personal responsibility of the executive head. No one at a lower level has the authority to perform the necessary tasks of coordination”.

Such a System could not knowingly be countenanced by anyone who values the government provided in the United States Constitution, and the incalculable advantages, which resulted from that government.

That those who set the Goal, and instigated the changes, and promoted installation of this System within that government, knew this to be true, can be demonstrated by the methods used to achieve the implementation of the System, including, but not limited to, lies, deceit, misdirection, and, of top importance, the preconditioning for acceptance of change.

Basic to individual liberty is the tenet of the uninhibited liberty of the mind to engage in any and every aspect of cognition and thought, without coercion or external direction of any kind.

“Conditioning of the mind” is blatant abuse of that inherent right of every man to think for himself – a right guaranteed by the Constitution.

As a function of government, conditioning of the minds of the citizenry is tyranny.

National Families United

Post Office Box # 7636
Santa Rosa, California
95406

---

Permission granted to reprint verbatim with credit.

CONQUEST OF OUR REPUBLIC: CRUSHING IT TO DEATH BY THE CHANGE MONSTER

The CHANGE process has already revamped the U.S.A. so that we are now in accord with military concepts on a regional basis for global management. Acceptance of the ID card by our people moves them under the militarized command and control of the Homeland Security Agency for global government operation.

A pre-assigned president will continue this "change" process so that the entire original constitutional power structure is gone! Your "informed" consent is what is missing!

Merriam taught them how to introduce a major plank in the international government while at the same time continuing all the planks each of his predecessors had instituted.

THE CHANGE MONSTER and his little helpers

The lid has to be lifted on the Oval Office in order to stop the unlawful transformation.

SEDITION

Clinton

I HELPED BY DENYING U.N. INTERNATIONAL COURT. I HELPED BY DENYING U.N. INTERNATIONAL COURT. I HELPED BY DENYING U.N. INTERNATIONAL COURT.

Bush

I HELPED BY MERGING THE POLICE WITH THE MILITARY. I MERGED THE POLICE WITH THE MILITARY. I MERGED THE POLICE WITH THE MILITARY.

Bush

I HELPED BY DENYING U.N. INTERNATIONAL COURT. I HELPED BY DENYING U.N. INTERNATIONAL COURT. I HELPED BY DENYING U.N. INTERNATIONAL COURT.

Chas. E. Merriam

I HELPED BY DENYING U.N. INTERNATIONAL COURT. I HELPED BY DENYING U.N. INTERNATIONAL COURT. I HELPED BY DENYING U.N. INTERNATIONAL COURT.

Reagan

Carter

Ford

Nixon

Johnson

Kennedy

Eisenhower

Truman

Roosevelt

Change is the name of the process headquartered in the president's office that is being used to unlawfully transform the U.S.A. from a Constitutional Republic into a global militarized socialist dictatorship.

Let us consider that arbitrary power has seldom or never been introduced into any country at once. It must be introduced by slow degrees, and as it were step by step, lest the people should see it approach. The barriers and fences of the people's liberty must be plucked one by one, and some plausible pretences must be found for removing or hoodwinking, one after another, those sentries who are posted by the constitution of a free country for warning the people of their danger. When these preparatory steps are once made, the people may then indeed, with regret, see slavery and arbitrary power making long strides over their land; but it will be too late to think of preventing or avoiding the impending ruin.

Philip Dormer Stanhope,
Fourth Earl of Chesterfield
Statesman, diplomat
Miscellaneous Works,
Vol. IV, 1779.

THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT HAS CONSOLIDATED ALL POWER
UNTO ITSELF IN ORDER TO BUILD A NEW WORLD ORDER

The United States has already been revamped under the "change" process so that it is now in accord with military concepts for operation on a regional basis. Using the computerized Planning, Programming, and Budgeting System (PPBS), the federal government does the planning, and works through the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) to dictate to the governor's office in each state, dealing directly with the state through the state's Planning Division. If the state does not comply with the "change" ordered, federal funding is denied. Thus, the federal government has control over the cities and counties of the states and issues socialist mandates for implementation that surface in the "General Plan" for these local governments. It is up to the governors to restore local control and reject the "change" process.

Folks, you now have two conflicting governments in operation in the United States!

The United Nations is a parallel government!

The United Nations Charter was unlawfully ratified as a "treaty". It did not qualify as a treaty because it calls for General and Complete Disarmament of the United States. Any instrument of any sort or kind which calls for the elimination of the nation's common defense systems is in gross violation of imperishable principles of liberty. It can't be a treaty!

The United Nations itself was not a sovereign government at the time the "treaty" was prepared and ratified. On this basis alone the so-called "treaty" could be declared 'null and void'. Years later (Mar.19, 1970) the U.N. declared itself to be a sovereign government.

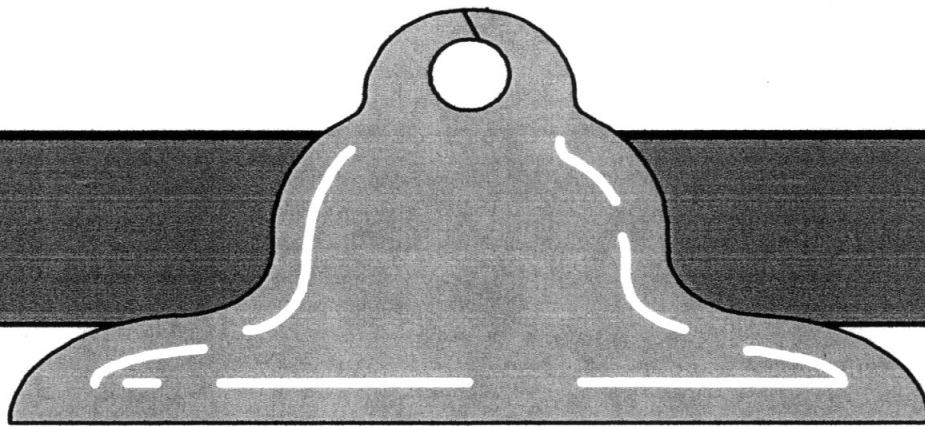

At the time the U.N. Charter was ratified as a "treaty" (July 1945), the proponents of world government began the move from theory into implementation of the world government systems. The United Nations organization had set itself down as a parallel government. Assisted by advancements, gained through the use of Executive Orders of the President, additional "treaty" agreements, and legislative acts of the U.S. Congress, the U.N. grew! Surely you must know that no treaty can lawfully supersede the principles of the U.S. Constitution, nor the confirmed endowments of the Creator embodied in the Bill of Rights! One U.N. "treaty" calls for the complete disarming of every American citizen. This destroys the function of the militia (the people at large) even though it is commanded in the Second Amendment of the Bill of Rights! There is no doubt about it, folks, the U.N. Charter does not care about the security of your free state. Its intent is to overthrow your state and federal Constitutions!

No nation can survive after its common defense has been seized by a foreign power and its citizens have been disarmed! Keep in mind also that a treaty, if it meets Constitutional requirements, is enforceable upon every individual! Because there are no withdrawal rights written into the U.N. Charter, it is mandatory for the individual states to initiate an action demanding that the United Nations Partici- pation Act of 1945 and the 1949 Amendments thereto be revoked, rescinded, and repealed. One of the goals of the proponents of the U.N. Charter is to disintegrate the federal Constitution so slowly that the people will adapt and not object to the switch-over; thus, the parallel government will ultimately remain as the only government. The formula for the operation of this vicious plan was conceived by Charles E. Merriam, the Rockefeller engineer who guided Franklin D. Roosevelt. Merriam, who believed that outright revolution was "the old way" and that communism could be brought in using the coat-tails of the Constitution itself, is quoted as having said: "Fortunately, our Constitution is broad enough in its terms, flexible enough in its spirit, and capable of liberal enough interpretation by the judiciary to permit the adaptation of democracy to changing conditions without serious difficulty." He also promoted the use of the word democracy to be used as a stand-in word for the word communism. Catch on, folks!

Sam

IF YOU WILL NOT

FIGHT FOR THE RIGHT

WHEN YOU CAN EASILY WIN

WITHOUT BLOODSHED.....

"....If you will not fight for the right

when you can easily win without bloodshed -- if you will not fight when your victory will be sure, and not so costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance for survival.

There may be a worse case!

You may have to fight when there is no chance of victory, because it is better to perish than to live as slaves."

....Sir Winston Churchill

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S ADVICE

"One method of assault may be to effect, in the forms of the Constitution, alterations which will impair the energy of the system, and thus to undermine what cannot be directly overthrown".

"Guard against impostures of pretended patriotism."

"If we desire a secure peace, it must be known that we are at all times ready for war".

"When firearms go, it all goes! We need them every hour."

He warned us to resist with care the spirit of innovation upon its (Constitutional) principles, however specious the pretext...discountenancing whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it can, in any event, be abandoned..." Farewell Address

"Government is not reason; It is not eloquence; it is force! Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master."

IS THIS WHERE WE ARE TODAY, A SITUATION WHICH WASHINGTON FEARED?

"....but until the people of America shall have lost all virtue – until they shall have become totally insensible to the difference between freedom and slavery; until they shall have been reduced to such poverty of spirit as to be willing to sell that pre-eminent blessing, the birthright of a Freeman, for a mess of pottage; in short, until they shall have been found incapable of governing themselves and ripe for a master –those consequences, I think, can never arrive." (Taken from a 64 page draft of his intended 1789 Inaugural speech, which he put aside because of its length and never gave.)

The objective of the War for Independence was to institute and perpetuate a system of government that would condemn tyranny and limit the power that man could exercise over his fellow man. The crowning glory was the creation of the 1789 Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Its survival, depends solely upon the people.

"The accumulation of all powers, legislative, executive, and judicial, in the same hands, whether of one, a few, or many... may justly be pronounced the very definition of tyranny." .... James Madison Publius 1788 Federalist

"When all governments, domestic and foreign, in little as in great things, shall be drawn to Washington, as the center of all power, it will render powerless the checks provided of one government on another, and will become as venial and oppressive as the government from which we separated." .... Thomas Jefferson

"See to the government. See that the government does not acquire too much power. Keep a check upon your rulers. Do this and liberty is safe." ... William Henry Harrison 1840

"The consolidation of the states into one vast republic, sure to be aggressive abroad and despotic at home, will be the certain precursor of that ruin which has overwhelmed all those that have preceded." .... Robert E. Lee 1866

"Posterity, you will never know how much it cost my generation to preserve your freedom. I hope you will make good use of it." .... John Adams

"On every question of construction (of the Constitution) let us carry ourselves back to the time when the Constitution was adopted, recollect the spirit manifested in the debates, and instead of trying what meaning may be squeezed out of the text, or invented against it, conform to the probable one in which it was passed."

..... Thomas Jefferson

Jefferson

"The provision in the Constitution granting the right to all persons to bear arms is a limitation upon the power of the legislator to enact any law to the contrary."

..... Michigan Supreme Court 1922

I WANT TO REPORT A CRIME!

by Bernadine Smith

Yes, I want to report a crime! This is a crime of the highest magnitude! Millions of people will be destroyed who now live in the United States of America. Some people are aware of the dangers involved in this crime, but others are completely oblivious. I am not able to determine if I am going to get real assistance in stopping this crime, or whether there is still time left.

What is this crime to which I am referring? Our government has been restructured! Even the Washington Times<sup>1</sup> has reported that Bush has “reshaped the [U.S] government by passage of the Homeland Security Bill” on November 19, 2002 with the aid of the Senate vote of 90-9.

Yes, our government has been reshaped to be a different type of government! It is no longer a constitutional republic! Whenever the military and the civilian law enforcement systems are merged together under one agency head, you have been transformed into a dictatorship! This merging has been done in the United States with the creation of the Homeland Security Agency. We are now reshaped as a segment of global government. Every civilian police officer all over this nation is now ‘on line’ beholden to, and controlled by, the militarized government system that was inserted under the Homeland Security Agency. This globalist milestone having been met, their current effort now is working to streamline all things under the federal administration for ‘unified command’. This is only a part of the crime I want to report.

Boldly, right under our eyes, George W. Bush is also merging the United States with Canada and Mexico, into one community, which expands the domain of the recent militarized government system, which he installed. Can you imagine the damage that will occur as the United States is merged with Canada and Mexico into one country? It has no approval of the people in the United States, but is proceeding under agreements George W. Bush made and signed in 2005.

Economist and researcher Miguel Pickard explained that although the Security, Prosperity, and Partnership (S.P.P.) plan is sometimes called NAFTA PLUS, there will be no single treaty text and nothing will be submitted to the legislatures of the three countries! The elites plan to implement their shared vision of “a merged future” through “the signing of ‘regulations’ not subject to citizens’ review.”<sup>2</sup> We are not supposed to understand it or even know about it!

Our 50 American states will be forced to disappear as the military government expands over the S.P.P. structural apparatus and applies throughout the three-nation merger. Our Constitution and Bill of Rights will fully collapse and be obsolete. In plain language: public officials in high places, professing to be loyal Americans, are the ones who are overthrowing our government! Is this not a crime that needs to be reported?

One of the first things you can expect under the full-blown military ruling is to find an order coming down for house-to-house searches. It will begin the mandatory elimination of all citizen owned firearms, and most likely, many citizens. Under this new form of government, and with the Bill of Rights eliminated, much more terror could happen. There will be no Constitutional safeguards left standing to resist the order to surrender every firearm a citizen possesses. A cruel system will then take over full-blown. Why are these crimes allowed to go on?

---

<sup>1</sup> Washington Times, December 1, 2002

<sup>2</sup> Phyllis Schlafly Report of August 23, 2006 entitled: “The NAFTA Super Highway.”

What is terrorism? I consider these changes, and reversals in the operational concept of our nation, which are now being forced upon us, to be recognized as REAL TERRORISM! The Washington Times reported on December 1, 2002, under the headline "Homeland Security Bill Reshapes the Government" that 22 agencies with 120,000 employees were placed under the new Homeland Security Agency. Did we approve? Agencies are not responsible to the people. This means that our new laid "government" is no longer responsible to the people! We have been dislodged as a republic! Can anyone suggest someone to whom I can turn that has the comprehension, fortitude, and patriotism to stop these offenses.

Our money system is to be changed, and most likely what savings people have will be devalued. They will no longer vote for representatives but will live under 'appointed' military authorities!

When Bush speaks of "freedom" and a "peaceful world", he is putting the General and Complete Disarmament Program right in front of the people, but they do not understand his reference! Later, he will claim that he had their approval, when actually, they did not know what he was referring to, when he made those references.<sup>3</sup> This is misrepresentation and fraud!

Why does President Bush purposely deceive? Because (1) he would never get the approval of the people to overthrow the true government of the United States; and (2) time is an important factor in the race they are conducting to convert the United States into a militarized communist system. Phantoms behind the scenes who 'program', 'task', and 'schedule' the president are aware that in order to keep from being exposed, they must restructure and militarize as rapidly as possible within planned time frames, lest people catch on! They give us no choice in the matter!

Since the 'change agents' seized control of our entire government system, they have recast the duties of the police, the courts, the schools, the churches, and have propagandized the media. Next, they intend to eliminate our sheriffs, many of which they have already intimidated. Can they harm our sheriffs? Yes, they have 'hooked' these segments of society on federal dollars with mandated programs and turned into 'yes men' all those who were once meant to be our protectors against corrupt government. This is another facet of the crime needing to be reported.

Have we, ourselves, just like some sheriffs, been turned into wimps that would be willing to stand by, and allow this nation's proper government to be overthrown by aggressive communitarian globalists imposing a militarized global dictatorship over us? I have heard it said that in 10 years or less there will be no more sheriffs! Some of the men who take over the sheriff's office do not understand the duties or reason for being a sheriff! It is one of their prime historical duties to protect the people against tyranny in government. But we do have some sheriffs who do know what the duties of a sheriff are, and they are not afraid to speak out. So I have decided that the most likely person to report this massive crime to is the sheriff. Sheriffs have an obligation to us, as well as to the nation's founders, to hustle up and restore the republic! His is the office where I should report this crime, but one person alone cannot reach all the sheriffs! Are you willing to hold up your end for your country by contacting your sheriff?

---

<sup>3</sup> Public Law 87-297 and Public Law 101-216. These laws are already passed, and they transfer the entire armed forces of the United States on a permanent basis to the United Nations. These laws have caused our military bases (B.R.A.C.) to be closed down, except for those necessary for the use of the world army under control of the communist dominated U.N. These laws also require a military force to 'preserve internal order', and eliminate the right of American citizens to own personal firearms.

SOME WAYS TO FORCE THE CHANGE TO OCCUR

---

There is a deliberate plan to collapse government. It is called "The Politics of Change in Local Government Reform". It is also known as The Houlihan Plan. The following two pages (Page 132 and 133) are reproduced in their original form taken from The Houlihan Plan. The five methods presented in the Plan serve as a warning of government's intention to create a scenario, that can develop into a major climate for change, under which the American system of government can be collapsed. It appears unlikely that the most suspected "collapse" -- that of the stock market -- will occur until after the government has seized an overwhelming percentage of arms from the law-abiding people. Keeping the citizens armed is a prime requisite for the prevention of such catastrophes, which also allows for the retrievability of constitutional government. Here are some conditions that are engineered to result in "change":

1) Economically-caused Changes-

- a) stock market reverses;
- b) businesses allowed to move out of U.S.A.;
- c) NAFTA undercutting American trucking & farming industry;
- d) overloading the infrastructure to the point of collapse by unregulated immigration; etc.
- e) inflation

2) Physical Changes -

- a) border re-alignments and revisions: county, state, and national.
- b) alterations in the operational standards, inverse laws, purported treaty processes, executive orders, public/private partnerships;
- c) other alterations diminishing the safeguards and weakening the principles of the constituted fabric, separation of powers for both state and federal systems.
- d) the merging of the U.S. into foreign alignments.
- e) foreign entanglements resulting in wars.

3) Social Changes -

- a) devaluation of Christian morals and ethics of the family;
- b) partnership with communist countries;
- c) alterations in educational teaching standards;
- d) acceptance, installation and application of the P.P.B.S., dialectics, mind altering techniques applied to the education system, law enforcement system, and the operation of the general governments.

4) Change Agents - Instigators - who influence the Media -

- a) hosts directing what information the public may hear. They condition public thinking, responses and direction; and chastise those who disagree on radio and television.
- b) producers of false security, false information, lies, and apathy. Controlling and reducing resistance. Bring to a consensus. Inducing fear in those who would choose to exercise dissent.

The people have had the wool pulled over their eyes by all the stratagems that have been used against them. The hardest thing for protesters to deal with (amid all of the many stratagems being used upon the American people) is deliberate lying and false titles covering up subversive engineering.

The failing of those who would resist such sedition is measured by the general lack of understanding regarding the collusion and subversion carried on in the long chain of presidents. Every president since 1932 has been an agent of the transition from constitutional government to a totalitarian global dictatorship. Each has agreed to transfer over our entire military in three stages to communist international commanders on a permanent basis. Until enough of the people get a proper understanding of the perils they face, the people will continue to spin their wheels and lose all of the security and benefits that were gained in their behalf during the Revolutionary War in 1775.

All representatives upon taking office were required to take an oath to support and defend our rightful Constitution. A violation of this oath is classed as a felony. Public officials who are guilty of committing a felony, can no longer hold office. It is to be hoped that the people will place a demand upon the few in office who sincerely adhere to the oath they swore to "support and defend", and they, in turn, will force subversive public officials to step down.

THE STATES HAVE GROUNDS TO FORCE BUSH TO STEP DOWN

"It takes only one state to initiate the charge in the SupremeCourt!"

Bernadine Smith

Our republic has suffered massive damage under the administration of George W. Bush, the latest in the cavalcade of unfaithful presidents; however what has been done to us is not beyond being reversed, and the republic re-established once again. As we stand now, we must face the fact that we have been revamped so that we are now in accord with military concepts on an international regional basis. True, we have lost a lot of ground in this "The Quiet Civil War", but in order to awaken the unsuspecting citizens, we had to hit near bottom before they could comprehend, with the proof they needed, as to who-and-what was overtaking their heritage and divesting them of their birthrights.

Permit me to set down some facts: Regional government is international global government. It is a dictatorial, cruel, communistic world-wide system. Of necessity, it has to be a militarized system, because global government could not be enforced in any other way. It is not self sustaining -- it has to be ramrodded down upon a helpless population. Conditions existing today give ample proof that the desired militarized system has been laid down over this nation, all of which was cultured and forcibly although unwittingly financed by the people.

Every U.S. president since the United Nations Charter was signed into being has been the central figure in the deception against the people. Our presidents are actually "administrators of the transition into global government". The oval office has since the adoption of the Charter of the United Nations* been the matrix in introducing, organizing, managing, advancing, and concealing the multiple aspects involved in the transformation of our nation into international regional government. The objective from the onset was to seize power belonging to the American states, to eventually eliminate them, and in their place demand compliance to a structured socialist/communist regionalized global system managed by authorities who are not subject to election or recall.

It was thought to be easier for the agents of "The Quiet Civil War"** to advance, if they could control just one key man, the head hancha with an 8 year stint in office, floating with all the power that is granted to a president of the United States. The rest of the administration would then follow in tandem, while the watchdogs in the news media would not dare to challenge the loyalty of the high office of the president. lest they be excoriated, and then silenced by fear. The strategy that was to be employed was laid out by specialized planners, paid to know the how-when-where to conduct "The Quiet Civil War". The documented record proves that "The Quiet Civil War" was engineered in the days of the Hoover/Roosevelt administrations. There were decades of theory planning: the "how to" in erasing national borders, and installing regional governments to replace the power of the states. For evidence of this, check out F.D.R.'s "Our Cities" report published in 1937. While Franklin Roosevelt looked like the great all-knowing father to whom they should run, Franklin had other ideas behind his thinking.

Each president that was elected to office, maintained the collective accomplishments of his predecessors, and added his own efforts to the alterations. As time passed, the modifications in the system began to make quite a difference.

Bush has altered the concepts of operation of this republic to the degree that he is "way past" suspicion of sedition and treason. He is (without a doubt) guilty by his performance of mal-administration by converting this nation into a military dictatorship and preparing it for operation under a global government.

He has self-authorized and endowed himself, with powers that are not a part of the American system, which can easily bring an end to the people's self-governing limited system of government; changes, which are leading to the eventual elimination of our 50 American states. This is another long sought after goal of the "New World Order" (initially known as F.D.R.'s "New Deal") -- the guiding plan behind all the wild changes that Bush is making in the operation of our government. Our "Declaration of Independence" is close to being totally wiped out by his actions. Like Bush, a number of our recent presidents have supported a communist replacement for our founding father's "Bill of Rights". The replacement is deceptively called the "Human Rights Treaties". The HRT does not contain a provision for the people to retain the right to arms.

Bush's use of executive orders, presidential directives and many international agreements, treaties which he has signed, etc. has transformed us to the degree that we are now conducive to operation under a totally communized militarized global management system, military government is erected and is on standby, totally opposite of what our nation's founders had established. Bush is guilty of flagrant and deliberate violation of his oath of office. He has seized control of the civilian law enforcement systems, which rightfully belong under state control, and has commandeered them into a merger with the military, resulting in the creation and institution of the Homeland Security Agency, now vested with massive illegal powers.

Merging the civilian law enforcement systems with the military is something never done in a republic -- unless it is being converted into a dictatorship! Every police officer in this nation has been transformed* so that he is 'on line' with, and controlled by, the Homeland Security Agency. Bush signed on May 9, 2007, the National Security Presidential Directive #51 and the Homeland Security Presidential Directive #20, endowing himself with "extraordinary powers" by transferring those massive unlawful powers now vested in the Homeland Security Agency unto himself in the executive department, making way for a full blown dictatorship to rule over the lives of the people of the United States.

The true protectors of the state, the State Guard (also known as the National Guard) have been transferred overseas to fight in Bush's imperialistic wars. When these men are needed, they will not be there in adequate numbers to assist in the needs of the states and their people.

Bush has signed the "North American Union" agreement which erases the national boundaries of the United States and merges Mexico, Canada, and the United States into one government, conducive to global management. These moves are tearing the United States apart, overthrowing its rightful form of government.

On March 23, 2005, Bush signed the "Security, Prosperity and Partnership" agreement with the leaders of Mexico and Canada. As a result, he is allowing the leasing out of our U.S. roads to foreign nations to become toll roads controlled by foreigners for the advancement of the "Super Corridor" which by virtue of this agreement connects Mexico and Canada with the United States, starting with the transportation field. World Net Daily has reported (6-13-07) that Mexican trucks will soon have a virtual free pass to travel on United States roads. Even airlines are involved as reportedly "a new plan is being discussed among officials from the United States, Mexico and Canada, (which) essentially would erase national borders in North America for air carriers.

On October 17, 2006 he signed the Military Commissions Act of 2006 which will eliminate the writ of Habeus Corpus. People who object to what he is doing are to be included in his list of "terrorists". It is a known fact that wars harm all nations, victors as well as vanquished! His wars and over-spending are destroying this nation's economic stability!

The Congress is assisting him by providing annual funding for building a world army, (See: Public Law 87-297) which incorporate on a permanent basis, our own national armed forces. Soldiers from foreign lands will eventually be commanded to enter homes and disarm every American citizen. It is part of Public Law 87-297, the general and complete disarmament law, which Bush often refers to as bringing us "peace" and a "more safe world". The damage he has done to our ability to defend our nation from invasion by his control of the Base Realignment & Conversion Commission, leaving us big gaps in our coastal defenses, is yet to be realized.

Bush's support of the Immigration Amnesty Bill allows more illegal immigrants to stay in the already overburdened United States, and will increase the burdens and hardships to U.S. medical providers, schools, and social services, plus the loss of employment suffered by American citizens whose jobs are taken up by illegal immigrants -- jobs taken are other than agriculture -- which leaves legal Americans workers without jobs.

Many wise advisors are warning that he is setting the Oval Office up for seizure of absolute power. How long can we wait until we find that we waited too long, and it is then too late to change the course of Domsday?

Bush is guilty of following the tactics of Adolf Hitler who wormed his way in power over the unsuspecting German people. All of these acts are outside of his authority. Emil Lengyel** reported on how Hitler wiped out the German states in just 5 minutes and became sole authority over that ill-fated nation. Once the states are ordered to be eliminated, our Constitution and our Bill of Rights will be permanently wiped out.

What we need is for our elected legislators in our state houses, to make an urgent appeal to the Supreme Court to address this situation, and to declare that Bush and his collaborators are guilty of massive sedition and treason. An action could then be conducted under the Sixteenth Jurisprudence to nullify all of the unconstitutional executive orders, treaties, agreements, etc. created for this malicious transformation.

The Supreme Court does not act automatically. It has to be approached and asked by the states to act on behalf of the states. It is important for the people to know that it takes ONLY ONE STATE to initiate the charge at the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court then has to act upon that charge. Keep in mind that the Court won't automatically act -- it has to be asked to act. Then it must act!

*adoption of the U.N. Charter included acceptance of the jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice, which now claims higher authority over the U.S. Supreme Court.

Notes:

*In order for our local policemen to keep their certification, they are required to take a 40-hour course each year which consists of three subjects. One of the three is called "Unified Command". This order comes from the Homeland Security Agency which now has every policeman 'on line'.

**Emil Lengyel's book entitled "The New Deal in Europe" and Hitler's efforts were referenced in the chapter listed as "The Twilight of the German Free States". Hitler had done all the preliminary work for such power and goals to be met, and when Hitler was ready, it took just a few minutes for him to shuffle some papers and sign an order to eliminate the states of that nation. The plans we are following today are based upon Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal. While he was president, FDR was the instigator of the regional government system. FDR's plan to abolish the states was resisted by an alert population with the help of the Congress who charged that FDR's National Resources Planning Board was unconstitutional and they cut off the funding for it. Abolishing the states is a necessity for the new world order. Interstate Compacts were been written in the past which would begin the process of elimination of state boundary lines.

SECOND AMENDMENT COMMITTEE P.O. BOX 1776 HANFORD, CA. 93230

IMMIGRATION REPORT FROM AMERICANS FOR IMMIGRATION CONTROL

Who Funded the Agents of Change?

By Robert H. Goldsborough,
President, AIC

In mid-August the Ford Foundation's board announced that its president, Susan V. Berresford, will resign after 18 years at the helm of this $11 billion funder of numerous left-wing organizations. When announcing the appointment of Luis A. Ubina to be the new president, Foundation chairwoman Kathryn S. Fuller said that the board wanted a person who "first and foremost [shared] the values of the institution, which are a bedrock of the commitment to social justice and innovation, and to helping those whose voices are not heard..." (New York Times, 8/14/07). That is the most excessive hyperbole I've ever read.

For the unvarnished truth about the Ford Foundation (as well as other giant tax-exempt foundations) and their grants to far-left and anti-American organizations, you must read Phil Kent's new book, Foundations of Betrayal. Kent documents the "dishonest philanthropy of numerous tax-exempt foundations including Ford, Rockefeller and Carnegie." The author exposes how some of these highly respected philanthropies have financed for many decades the collectivization of the United States. Kent quotes an old friend of mine, Norman Dodd, research director of the Reece Committee of Congress which, in 1954-55, investigated the giant tax-exempt foundations' grants:

Robert Goldsborough, AIC President

"Wealth controls culture... (F)oundations have used their wealth to change American culture to one of collectivism. If a nation is going socialist, it is... because wealth — improperly used — has altered the culture of the nation and led it to the left."

Clearly foundations have funded the radical liberalization of education in America. "The Carnegie and Rockefeller foundations functioned as a U.S. Department of Education decades before the Cabinet-level agency was ever formed," writes Kent. "They religiously funded and produced textbooks promoting socialist John Dewey's permissive brand of education." The author documents specific examples of which foundations financed which public school textbooks favoring communism, and exposes those foundations, including Rockefeller and Carnegie, which have funded the socialist brainwashing of generations of America's youth. Using grants, scholarships and fellowships, these Foundations financed distorted anti-American history textbooks, socialist sociology texts, permissive and perverted sexual studies, and international relations clubs promoting socialist one world government.

Kent devotes chapter VII to "Sexual Morality & the Foundations." In it, he makes and proves this startling charge: "A workable plan to eventually dynamite American Judeo-Christian sexual and marital mores was actually launched in the 1940's by amoral foundation elites and a willing tool, a frail zoologist from Hoboken, New Jersey named Alfred C. Kinsey." The Rockefeller Foundation funded Kinsey's so-called "scientific" work and its resultant publication Sexual Behavior in the Human Male which was lavishly promoted by a sympathetic liberal media.

Kinsey's co-author, Dr. Wardell Pomeroy, candidly described the Kinsey Institute's and Rockefeller Foundation's grand scheme to replace America's traditional standard of sexual morality based upon the marriage of a man and a woman to one based on free love. Kinsey's research methodology surveyed sexually permissive persons such as prostitutes and homosexuals and reported their wildly perverted sexual abnormalities so as to claim there was no such thing as "normal" when it comes to sex. Kinsey, with Rockefeller money, very successfully subverted America's moral standards.

In other chapters, the author documents how many foundations have generously supported extremist environmental groups which in turn have threatened and in some cases physically attacked those they deem enemies. You can read how Heinz, Hewitt, Pew and Turner foundation money funded the crazy tree huggers. In a section on supporters of illegal aliens, the author writes that "popular recipient of massive foundation money in recent years is the racial open borders and 'multicultural' lobby which backs amnesty for illegal aliens and massive guest worker programs." One of the most strident groups is the National Council of La Raza (i.e., The Race) supported by "the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. Ford, Rockefeller, Lynde and Harry Bradley, J.P. Morgan Chase, John and Catherine MacArthur Foundation, the Bank of America..." etc. Kent explains that "the open borders lobby consists of numerous foundation-supported advocacy groups seeking to change the demographic composition and culture of the United States."

Not all foundations support anti-American or extremist activity, but Phil Kent has identified those that do.

After reading Kent's well documented work, many will agree with the Reece Committee's Norman Dodd who stated that those foundations should lose their tax-exempt status and should be made to pay a like amount of money to undo the damage they have caused America.

CHANGE

"We have committed ourselves to building the world as it should be." (Michelle Obama)

"National service an unite us. (John McCain)

"Change and reform" (John McCain)

"Change must start from the bottom up, not top down." (Hillary Clinton)

Sarah Palin has never opposed the "Homeland Security Agency" that has commandeered Alaska's law enforcement system .

How I Learned to Love the New World Order

Imagine my surprise when a Wall Street Journal editorial appointed me dean of the Pat Buchanan school of neo-isolationism. My credentials? Believing that the Pentagon's new strategy — America as "Globocop" — could render the United States a hollow superpower.

All agree we need the military capacity to defend our vital interests — by ourselves when need be. The question is grand strategy. With the Journal's endorsement, the Pentagon has called for a Pax Americana: The U.S. should cast so large a military shadow that no rival dare emerge.

American hegemony might be a pleasant idea, but is it economically, political-

Counterpoint

✓ By Joseph R. Biden Jr.

ly or even militarily wise? Bristling with weapons, we would continue our economic decline, while rising industrial and financial giants in Europe and Asia viewed our military pretensions with indifference or contempt.

Defense Secretary Dick Cheney outdid even the Journal, dipping deep into the well of Cold War argumentation to accuse Pax Americana critics of thinking "America's world presence is somehow immoral and dangerous."

✓ Why doesn't the Journal stop the name-calling, get its schools sorted out, and court an honest debate over America's proper role in the new world order?

Pat Buchanan's "America First" preaches martyrdom: We've been suckered into fighting "other" people's battles and defending "other" people's interests. With our dismal economy, this siren song holds some appeal.

But most Americans, myself included, reject 1930s-style isolationism. They expect to see the strong hand of American leadership in world affairs, and they know that economic retreat would yield nothing other than a lower standard of living. They understand further that many security threats — the spread of high-tech weapons, environmental degradation, overpopulation, narcotics trafficking, migration — require global solutions.

What about America as globocop? First, our 21st-century strategy has to be a shade more clever than Mao's axiom that power comes from the barrel of a gun. Power also emanates from a solid bank balance, the ability to dominate and penetrate markets, and the economic leverage to wield diplomatic clout.

Second, the plan is passive where it needs to be aggressive. The Journal endorses a global security system in which we destroy rogue-state threats as they arise. Fine, but let's prevent such problems early rather than curing them late. Having contained Soviet communism until it dissolved, we need a new strategy of "containment" — based, like NATO, on collective action, but directed against weapons proliferation.

The reality is that we can slow proliferation to a snail's pace if we stop irresponsible technology transfers. Fortunately, nearly all suppliers are finally showing restraint. The maverick is China, which persists in hawking sensitive weapons and technology to the likes of Syria, Iran, Libya, Algeria and Pakistan — even while pledging otherwise.

The Senate has tried to force China's leaders to choose between Third World arms sales (1991 profits of $500 million) and open trade with the U.S. (a $12.5 billion annual Chinese surplus). Even though we have convincing intelligence that China's leaders fear the use of this leverage, the president inexplicably refuses to challenge Beijing.

Weapons containment can't be foolproof; and against a nuclear-armed North Korea, I would support pre-emptive military action if necessary. But let's do our best — using supplier restraint and sanctions against outlaw sellers and buyers — to avoid having to round up the posse. Why not an anti-proliferation "czar" in the cabinet to give this objective the prominence it urgently needs?

Third, Pax Americana is a direct slap at two of our closest allies — Japan and Germany — and a repudiation of one of our great postwar triumphs. For years, American leaders argued that building democracy in Europe and Asia would guarantee stability because democracies don't start wars. Now the Pentagon says we must keep our military large enough to persuade Japan and Germany "not to aspire to a greater role [even] to protect their legitimate interests."

Rather than denigrating collective security, we should regularize the kind of multilateral response we assembled for the Gulf War. Why not breathe life into the U.N. Charter?

How has our success suddenly become a threat? It hasn't, but the Pentagon plan could become a self-fulfilling prophecy. By insulting Tokyo and Berlin, and arrogating to ourselves military stewardship of the world, we may spark the revival no one wants.

Secretary Cheney says he wants the allies to share the burden on defense matters. But Pax Americana puts us on the wrong end of a paradox: Hegemony means that even our allies can force ever greater U.S. defense spending the more they try to share the burden!

✓ Fourth, collective security doesn't rule out unilateral action. The Journal says I'm among those who want "Americans... to trust their security to a global committee." But no one advocates that we repeal the "inherent" right of self-defense enshrined in Article 51 of the United Nations Charter.

Secretary Cheney says his plan wouldn't undermine support for the U.N. Who would know better than the U.N.'s usually understated secretary general? If implemented, says Boutros Boutros-Ghali, the Pentagon's strategy would spell "the end of the U.N."

Rather than denigrating collective security, we should regularize the kind of multilateral response we assembled for the Gulf War. Why not breathe life into the U.N. Charter? It envisages a permanent commitment of forces, for use by the Security Council. That means a presumption of collective action — but with a U.S. veto.

Rather than defending military extravagance, the Bush administration should be reallocating Pentagon funds to meet more urgent security needs: sustaining democracy in the former Soviet empire; supporting U.N. peacekeepers in Yugoslavia, Cambodia and El Salvador; and rebuilding a weakened and debt-burdened America.

If Pentagon strategists and their knee-jerk supporters could broaden their horizons, they would see how our superpower status is best assured. We must get lean militarily, revitalize American economic strength, and exercise a diplomatic leadership that puts new muscle into institutions of collective security.

✓ Sen. Biden is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's European Affairs Subcommittee.

The Biden "experience" is not a lesson in the art of Obama.

This article by Joe Biden tells why Barack Obama needed

*McCain promises change and reform.
See below.*

McCain, Palin ignore Obama's jabs at rally

1 day ago

Republican presidential candidate John McCain and his running mate Alaska Governor Sarah Palin

FAIRFAX, Virginia (AFP) — John McCain and his running mate Sarah Palin made no mention of a deepening brawl with Democratic rival Barack Obama Wednesday, sticking instead to their standard stump speech at a rally in Virginia.

Palin continued to tout her decision to tell Congress "thanks, but no thanks for that bridge to nowhere" despite criticism that she is exaggerating her history of opposing wasteful spending.

And her attacks on Obama were unchanged from lines she has used over the past several days, despite a growing controversy over his use of the analogy "lipstick on a pig" when mocking the Republican ticket's promise of change Tuesday.

Palin scoffed at Obama's promise to fight for Americans, telling the cheering crowd "there is only one man in this election who has every really fought for you" in reference to McCain's decorated service during the Vietnam war.

The Alaska governor also said she was surprised Obama would have brought up the issue of earmarks given that he has asked for nearly a million dollars in earmarks for every day he'd spent in the Senate.

"We reformed the abuses of earmarks in our state, and it was while our opponent was requesting a billion dollars in earmarks as a senatorial privilege," Palin said in a public park in Fairfax, Virginia.

"What I was doing was vetoing half a billion as an executive responsibility."

McCain meanwhile pressed his promise to reform Washington and touting his history of bucking his own party and reaching across the aisle in order to serve the best interest of the people.

"We understand who we work for. We don't work for a party. We don't work for a special interest, and we don't work for ourselves. We'll work for you and we'll put our country first and that's what this campaign is all about. Change and reform. Change and reform," McCain said. ✓

"Let me offer an advanced warning to the old big-spending, do-nothing, me-first country-second Washington crowd. Change is coming. Change is coming and it's coming to our nation's capital. We'll clean it up." ✓

As I View Sarah Palin

By Bernadine Smith

As to my opinion of Palin, I make no secret of this. I do not approve of a woman in an obvious man's job. I cannot believe the military would respect the leadership of a woman as commander-in-chief of all the armed forces. She is no Joan of Arc.

If she is pro-U.N. which appears to be the case, she is a mixed up idiot. Her charm, and youthful vigor, are fine as a city mayor, but as a governor, she has been inadequate for the times in which we live.

Has she ever protested the consolidation of all power on the federal level which is a violation of the Tenth Amendment? Has she ever objected to the Homeland Security Agency taking over all the law enforcement systems (local police) of all our states and merging them with the military, thus making a change in our form of government? We are now set up in dictatorship form. She does not understand how the internationalists have altered our government structure to the point where even our states can now be abolished!!! They all get their orders from the federal government via O.M.B. and its Planning, Programming and Budgeting System. Does she realize the Constitutional and moral damage the schools are doing to the kids since the federal government also seized our education system? These have long been internationalist objectives.

How can she push so hard in support of McCain, who is an internationalist (global government) George Bush stand in? She will have no substantial power as vice president. She is the "admission ticket" for placing another bad president in the Oval Office. I cannot respect her for that. McCain, as president, will sign legislation sent from the Congress to alter our nation's Constitutional system, just as his predecessors have done; he will sign his name to new 'executive orders' for global conversion; make supreme court appointments; attend summit conferences and negotiate and sign more global treaties that wipe out Constitution.

Palin is a big mouth right now, but she will be quite surprised when she finds out how fast a muzzle will be placed on her, if McCain gets elected. She is poorly educated on a Constitutional government basis, and she was just lucky to land a job as a governor and get a big income. Obama and McCain! Both are for "change" and you know what that means!

If John McCain is elected, we will continue on with global government!

A League of Nations

A League of Democracies

A Loss of Sovereignty

Republic Presidential candidate John McCain told Americans that "With out Democratic friends and allies around the world we need to build a new global order of peace,..."<sup>1</sup>. He describes this as a organization that could "bring concerted pressure to bear on tyrants in Burma or Zimbabwe with or without Moscow's or Beijing's approval."<sup>1</sup>. In essence fulfilling the same purpose the United Nations Security Council is supposed to fill but removing Russia's and China's voice from the proceedings. It is ironic that the creation of this "new global order of peace" will likely push the world back into the Cold War by directly attacking Russia's international standing. McCain claims he will "...start bringing democratic peoples in nations around the world into one common organization, a worldwide league of democracies, a League of Democracies."
This would not be like the universal membership and failed League of Nations of Woodrow Wilson but much more like Theodore Roosevelt envisioned, like minded nations working together in the cause of peace."<sup>1</sup> Since John is being silent on specific details of his new League we should examine Roosevelt's vision.

Roosevelt wrote "What is needed in international matters is to create a judge and then to put police power back of the judge."

...

The one permanent move for obtaining peace, which has been suggested, with any reasonable chance of attaining its object, is by an agreement among the great powers. In which each should pledge itself not only to abide by the decisions of a common tribunal but to back by force the decisions of that common tribunal.

...

They should furthermore agree not only to abide, each of them, by the decision of the court, but all of them to unite with their military forces to enforce the decree of the court as against any recalcitrant member."<sup>2</sup>

It appears that the vision on which John McCain is basing his League of Democracies on calls for the surrender of our nation's right to make decisions for itself. A new all-powerful tribunal will make decisions for our nation and if we resist the new combined military is ready to put down any protest. This vision is the loss of our sovereignty and against our Constitution.

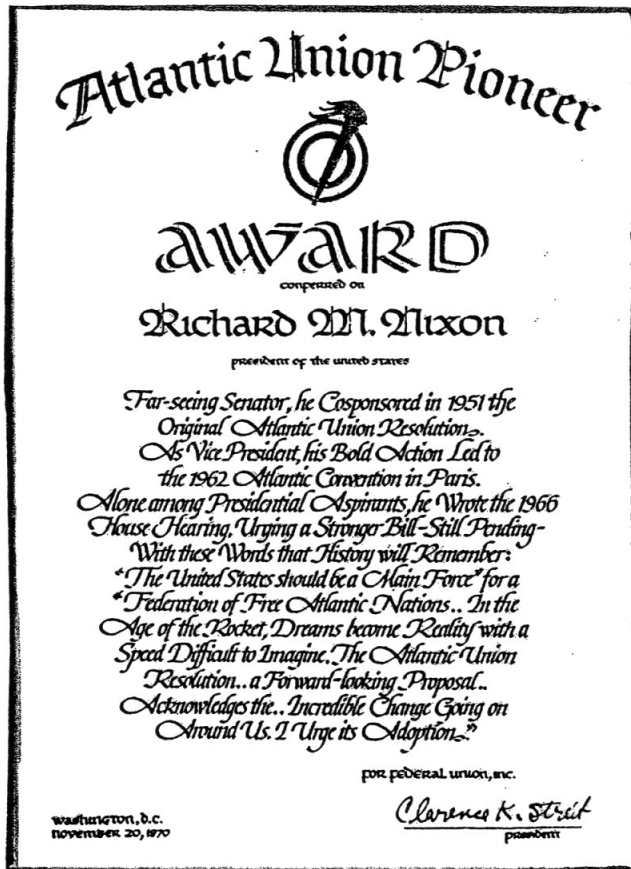

The America of today is not like the America of decades past. The America of today is wounded and suffering. She has been attacked and in a constant state of war for seven years. Her economy is in turmoil and people are loosing their homes. Even with all these problems her citizens still have their pride. They still have their freedom. They will never allow the nation their parents created to be destroyed and absorbed into a global nation. John McCain should instinctively know this as an American.

✓<sup>1</sup> Speech by John McCain, May 1, 2007. Hoover Institution. Stanford University.

<sup>2</sup> Article by Theodore Roosevelt. Oct 18, 1914. New York Times.

This compilation is an awakening to all. It's all about

CHANGE!

Just as Clarence Streit (of the federal "Union Now" global group) declared in November of 1970, as he signed Richard Nixon's award for being an "Atlantic Union Pioneer" – this compilation is an incredible report against what Streit called the "incredible CHANGE going on around us." Without an awakening by the people of the United States of the on-coming impending destruction being planned by presidential change artists, the people will be voting for another change artist in November of 2008 to be at the helm of their ship-of-state to sink the glories and victories gained by our Founding Fathers who guarded us with the United States Constitution.

"....the incredible change going on around us".... Clarence Streit of "Union Now".

WE ARE UNDER ATTACK
BY AN ARMADA OF
CHANGE AGENTS

